

Bus Destination Sign Improvements

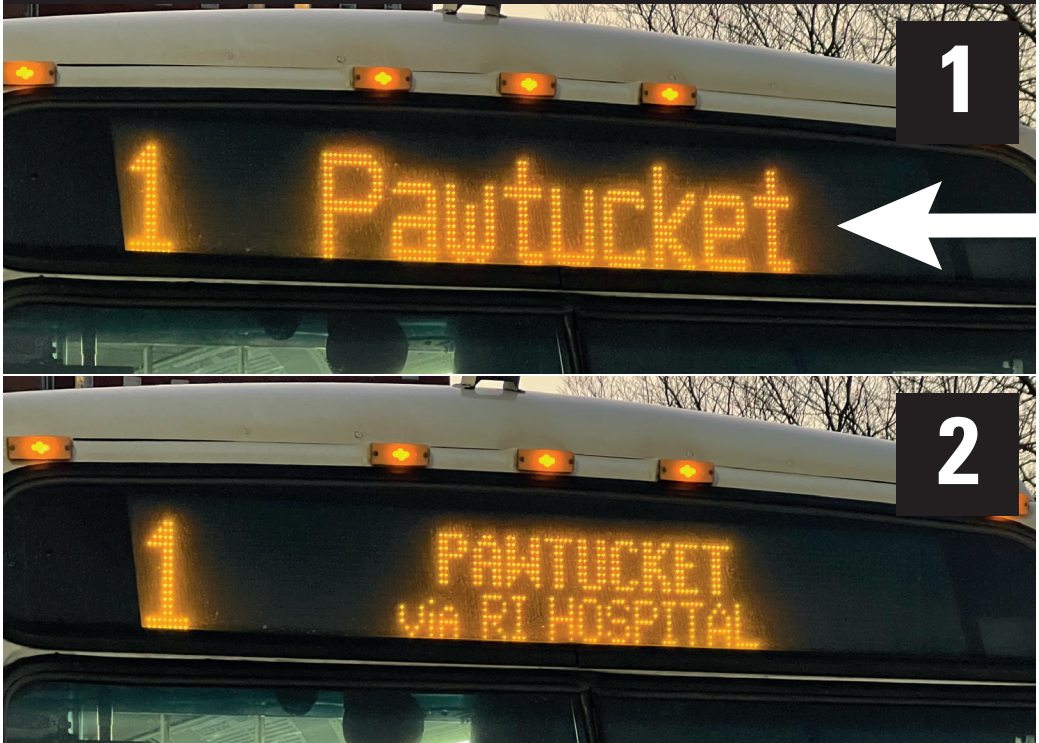

Always displaying the route number

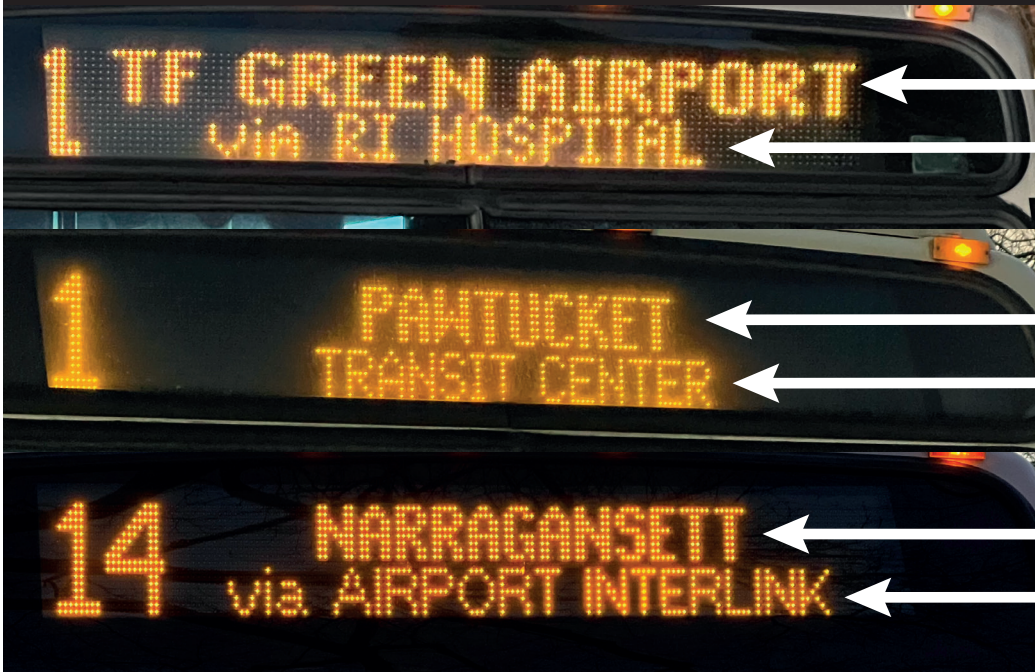

Using mixed case letters

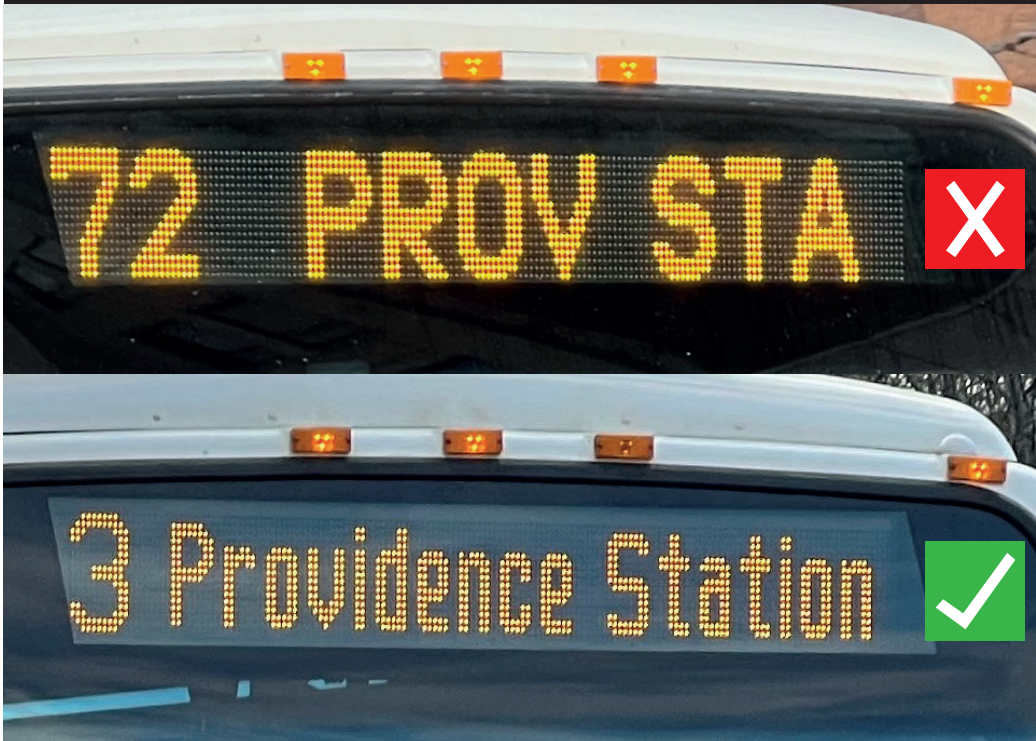

Always displaying the destination in full-height text on the first sign

Using “stacked” double-line signs after the destination on the front of the bus

Using fewer abbreviations

Always displaying the destination on the top line of double-line signs

