What is a Paratransit Operator CDL Trainee?

- A Paratransit Operator CDL Trainee is a temporary at-will trainee with the Rhode Island Public Transit Authority (RIPTA).
- The CDL Trainee will work with RIPTA training instructors to obtain their full RI CDL driver's license and required endorsements to be eligible for a permanent position of Paratransit Operator.
- Once training is completed and the trainee passes the CDL road skills test, the trainee will become eligible to join the RIPTA team as a Paratransit Operator.

How do I Qualify?

- Complete a RIPTA employment application and submit it to Human Resources, and if you already have your active CDL permit, a copy of a valid RI CDL driver's permit and required permit endorsements or a copy of your RI operator license. All applicants are reviewed and selected based on criteria outlined under experience, education, and selection process sections of this posting (pg. 2). Please note while all applications are reviewed, not all are selected.
- Applicants are required to secure their RI CDL permit with passenger and general knowledge endorsement permits prior to being considered for hire. RIPTA does not assist applicants with instruction regarding the permit written tests.
- Applicant must have a valid RI CDL driver's license or active RI CDL permit with required passenger and general knowledge endorsement permits. RIPTA is unable to provide CDL training to applicants licensed outside the State of Rhode Island.
- Applicant must be age 21 or older to qualify for a passenger endorsement on a CDL driver's license/CDL permit.
- Must show evidence of a clear driving record history.
- Must show evidence of a clear Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) check.
- CDL Trainees are responsible for the cost of all required written tests, skills test and licensing fees associated with the CDL process. For more information on guidelines for CDL applicants, please visit www.dmv.ri.gov.

under a state law to be a valid medical explanation for a transportation employee's positive drug test result. It remains unacceptable for any employee subject to drug testing under the Department of Transportation's drug testing regulations to use marijuana.

What is the Process if I am selected?

- CDL Trainees are not eligible to receive benefits from RIPTA until they successfully complete 3-weeks of CDL training and pass the CDL road skills test to obtain their full CDL license.
- Once the CDL Trainee passes the CDL road skills test, the trainee will move to the next step of the process, becoming a RIPTA employee.
- The CDL Trainee will need to apply for their Real ID upon being issued their CDL driver's license.
- If the CDL Trainee does not pass the road skills test, there is a 2-week waiting period to retake the test. The Trainee will not be paid by RIPTA during the 2-week waiting period unless they are at RIPTA for refresher training.
- If the CDL Trainee does not pass the second attempt at the road skills test, the Trainee will no longer be eligible to become a RIPTA employee.

When Am I a RIPTA Employee?

- Once the CDL Trainee passes their skills road test, the following Monday (Tuesday if a holiday falls on Monday) will begin the CDL Trainee's first day as a newly hired RIPTA Paratransit Operator in training.
- The rate of pay for a Paratransit Operator is $25.33 / $52,686.40 Annually.
