TRANSIT FARE STUDY UPDATE - LIMITED TIME TO GIVE YOUR FEEDBACK!

Thank you to those who attended our recent community meetings and provided feedback on our proposed fare options! Four fare options are now available for public review online. Although four options are being presented for public review, RIPTA is open to suggestions from the public and will continue to process the data and all feedback. As a result, the recommendation that will come from this study will most likely be a combination of elements from the four options. RIPTA will receive comments on these options through October 5, 2015.

Please visit ripta.com for more details and to review the options.
